DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by FRANKLIN ET AL (US 5701722).

FRANKLIN ET AL discloses a method for sealing a load placed on a pallet in which the load is enveloped by a film, during which time it is independently secured by a clamping means (54), then placed on a pallet and the load and pallet together placed on a rack (42) which is raised by scissored crosspieces.

Examiner notes that the functional language in claim 1 lines 15-28 and claim 8 lines 7-17 has not been given patentable weight because it is narrative in form. In order to be given patentable weight, a functional recitation must be expressed as a "means" for performing the specified function, as set forth in 35 USC § 112, 6th paragraph, and must be supported by recitation in the claim of sufficient structure to warrant the presence of the functional language.
